

Meeting Places

The installation is not only accumulation of abstract sculptures placed in the surrounding landscape which produces the energy but it is the real « Meeting place » for the people, who want to rest, make a picnic, admire the sea, sunset, the trees or city.

Inspiration for this installation are the aboriginal painting symbols, like meeting place, resting place, campsite with tracks. The top view of installation reminds these symbols and the dots of aboriginal painting.

