

Through engaging, coral-inspired sculptures, SEAFOREST connects culture and nature on the same wavelength. The installation harvests kinetic energy by coaxing unique marine forms to the surface of St. Kilda Triangle.

