WHEN PENGUINS FLY Compliment the planned development of St Kilda Triangle with dynamic and integrated programs punctuated by their abilities to educate, excite and provide. Power generation and storage solutions are cultural and environmental points of interest on land, in the air and underwater. Native plant protocol and new urban amenities increase resiliency and adaptability to climate change while honoring the Boon Warrung and heading toward a sustainable future. Alfred Square The Esplanade 00000 0 00000 Luna Park The Palais St Kilda Sea Baths St Kilda Beach Port Phillip Bay 5 Battery Reef 8 Emerald Hill Ngargee 2 Watt Time Tower 3 Sunset Beach Bridge 4 Kilda Kites 1 The Time Line 6 Language Shelters 7 The People's Perch • • • • Representing the strength and resiliency of community the large retaining wall of the amphitheater features a large painting that Bunjil the Wedge Tail Eagle, the Creator Boon Wurrung leader Derrimut Possum Skin Cloak Boon Wurrung Country by Adam Magennis (2012) depicts the Ngargee at Emerald Hill - a lively spiritual drama and mystery of the Boon The TIME LINE connects points of interest as it guides visitors through depictions of significant historical events in the history of the Boonwarrung people. Large full color panels installed along the TIME LINE feature UV protected photos of St. Kilda's Triangle in the past, as well as paint-Warrung Corroboree. ings and text about its rich history. This is an opportunity for families to walk with Boon Warrung - the original people and custodians of this land for thousands of years.