

ST. KILDA HALO

The Halo is a dynamic new gathering place for St Kilda – an iconic and visionary beacon drawing people to the public lawns. The Halo is a forest, synthesised into an object, capturing sunlight with layers of PV foliage. The Halo will be a landmark, an interactive art installation which invites the public to engage with and celebrate the future of energy infrastructure.

