

SITE HISTORY

The proposal attempts to embed into St Kilda's neighbourhood through the lens of history and culture - a Bohemian psyche born from displacement of the wealth during the Great Depression.

The proposal St Kilda's Veil realigns itself parallel to the promenade - a nod to the linearity of the site as delineated by the tramway. The battery plant on the hand is stacked into a form of the tower next to the Palais Theatre and arranged in a herringbone manner with a public thoroughfare with the energy infrastructure.
