

SOLAR ORBS

The design of Solar Orbs emulates the unique convex and concave nature of the St Kilda foreshore, where the sweeping arc of the water's edge and the tight curve of the cliff's edge meet. By viewing the world through the orbs, the built environment and the natural world is inverted, and the relationship between human culture and wilderness can be seen in a new light.

