

Embodying the unique environmental typology of St Kilda, along with the region's tradition of ambitious and creative public projects, Solar Orbs positively contributes to the goal of net zero emissions while simultaneously enriching St Kilda Triangle and its inhabitants.

Looking at the world upside down, if just for a moment, obscures how we view the world around us. To blur the boundaries between the known and the sublime is to rejuvenate a sense of wonder and give pause for reflection.