

Loe

Loe is a unique living installation that allows the fusion of three renewable energies (plant energy, solar energy and wind energy). Loe makes the production of clean and sustainable energy visible and alive. I see Loe as an invitation to return to the roots like a contemporary totem pole for Masdar, the future capital of sustainable energy. This installation aims to be a flagship for research in urban green energy production.

