

Harnessing people power...

When you think of climate change
You'd think of only humans, it's strange
Some might even think, it's still out of range
And this kind of logic makes certain people rage

These species of birds portray
32 vulnerable to critically endangered prey
As the sun shine during the day
Their shadows will be on display

So let's open our eyes
It's time to recognise
The rate of level rise
That puts wildlife in jeopardize

These canopies indicates
That this landmark generates
Renewable energy 24 hours straight
Because there's no more time to wait

The pathway guides you through the park
Mimics a portal with major arc
Its cool white light glows in the dark
During the night it adds spark

This is the falcon's nest
It sure is different from the rest
A place for events to host with zest
Can accommodate few number of guests

This ghaf tree is designed
As a space to unwind,
Read a book of any kind
Or interact to challenge your mind

These trees will make you excite
It gives an experience to delight
Enjoy the ride when you're in flight
But don't forget to hold on tight
