

FLOATING GEMS

solar farms

the site

masdar university

The Floating Gem targets to use the local source material and preserve the ecological landscaping for nature life. By creating the tunnels the project can suit the desert climate provides more comfortable space without addition air-conditioning, in addition to reduce the environment impact. Large lift ground will use the soil from neighbor building's basement excavation soil with local grass and vegetation.

