

Green Spine

Wind and sun flow throughout the site. This public artwork takes these forces of nature and freezes them in time in a spine structure, then branches out in clusters derived from the sun's path during the day. It creates a shaded area for the space beneath it, and facilitates a place for public interact with each other - to share stories, ideas and knowledge.

1566mWh
annual capacity

