

Social gathering

Group dining

Generating electricity

Convergence

Although the future of Fly Ranch is uncertain, a confluence of ideas and innovation is inevitable. There is always strength in numbers, and the greatest catalyst is providing a place for those numbers to interact. This proposal aims to be just that; a social place where people of all different wavelengths would enjoy interacting and cooperating. Just like people are, light is more powerful when it converges, another important aspect to the pavilion.