

The native American totem creates a magical area around it. This artwork is a contemporary totem that tells stories, creates spirits through mirages and generates power through earth, wind and sun.

The art installation wants to be a network of contemporary totems that disappear in a mirage from afar, in an act that is a consequence of its process of energy generation.

You enticed me in. I kept my distance at first, But like always, you win