

The vision for the forest is a healthy, ecologically valuable, and climate-stable mixed forest that offers spaces for recreation and relaxation, functional habitats, carbon neutrality and a supply of raw material.

Sculptural and functional, these water features provide spaces for individuals of all ages to interact with this compact form of hydroelectricity and enjoy the cooling effects it provides.

The playscapes create a visual and comprehensible experience connecting movement to energy creation while entertaining and captivating interest.